"The essential practice in Sufism is "zikr," which means remembrance -- remembrance of God, remembrance of the source and goal of all being, remembrance of our true home. This remembrance is practiced ritually in the invocation of divine names, and especially in the recitation, "La ilaha illa-llah," "There is no deity but the one God." This recitation reminds us that all of our subjective conceptions regarding ourselves, regarding the nature of the universe are relative. The one reality includes, but transcends and outstrips, all such relative conceptions. That is what we call Allah, the one reality, the true Being, the Absolute. This One Being is remembered through acts of recitation -- repeated recitation with movement, with coordination of breath, sometimes with visualization, using this chant, "La ilaha illa-llah," as well as variants and other divine invocations." - Pir Zia Inayat Khan.

The Aramaic Jesus and the Sufis: Shared Paths of the Heart

with Murshid Saadi Shakur Chisti

November 12 – 14, 2010 ~ Madison, Wisconsin

Yeshua's words, viewed through Aramaic eyes, reveal many aspects of his original way of prayer, contemplation and spiritual practice. Many of these carried over to ancient Arabic Christianity and into the early history of Islam. Historically, early Islam had a close relationship with Aramaic and Arabic Christianity, which share the same emphasis on the mystical and spiritual side of Jesus' teaching. Within the larger community of Islam, the Sufis expressed this mystical side, used some of the same practices and told many stories about Jesus, whom they still hold in high respect. As we explore this relationship, we aim to help build bridges between the differences we perceive within and between us. This three-day workshop will feature chant, Sufi stories, meditation and movement, Dances of Universal Peace and Sufi zikr focused on the shared prayers of the heart that connect the Aramaic Jesus and the Sufis.

Jesus' wisdom teachings are still as relevant today as when he first said, "Love your neighbor as yourself." We love the neighbor within as we become more fully human, exploring the full potential of our power and love. This naturally expresses itself in a more vivid and enlivened daily life.

Dr. Neil Douglas-Klotz (Murshid Saadi Shakur Chisti) is an independent scholar and the author of Prayers of the Cosmos, Desert Wisdom, The Hidden Gospel, The Genesis Meditations, The Sufi Book of Life, Blessings of the Cosmos and The Tent of Abraham (with Sr Joan Chitister and Rabbi Arthur Waskow).

Harvesting the Riches Within

Spiritual Retreat with Aziza Scott

September 18-19, 2010
Tai Chi Center
Madison, Wisconsin

In these times of change and transition, when fear and confusion seem to be spreading all around us, spiritual retreat allows us to break from the stressful atmosphere of daily life and discover the riches of the silent, changeless world within. Retreat is an answer to the call of the soul to soar on the wings of spirit. As we awaken to inner guidance, we experience the upwelling of joy, peace, understanding and power that are our true nature. We emerge with renewed purpose, creativity and dedication to service.

In this season of harvest, Aziza will guide us on a sacred journey to the limitless bounty of the inner realms, drawing on Sufi meditation practices with light, breath, and sound. Her humor, common sense, and no-nonsense approach to spirituality encourage self-discovery, personal problem solving and inner realization.

For many years, Aziza has traveled extensively in the U.S. and Europe, guiding retreats as head of the Sufi Order International Esoteric School and Director of Retreat Guide Training for the Sufi Order International.
